“New For You!” at Marshall District Library

The Marshall District Library is highlighting these new items for your consideration:

ROMANTIC FICTION AND NONFICTION

Romantic Fantasies and Other Sexy Ways of Expressing Your Love by Gregory J. P. Godek

This nonfiction book provides the reader with 217 different ways to reconnect with your partner and to improve your relationship. Divided into easy to read and use chapters, this book gives practical and realistic advice to people in any stage of a relationship.

Keeper of the Heart by Johanna Lindsey

A futuristic romance that reads very much like the historical romances that are set in the Middle Ages, Keeper of the Heart is rife with arranged marriages, barbarians, castles, and lord and serf type hierarchies. Feisty Shanelle flees the barbarian who she is betrothed to only to find herself meeting warrior Falon. Despite her refusals, Falon vows Shanelle will be his one day.

Fine, I'll Go Online! by Leslie Oren

This nonfiction guide was written by Hollywood publicist Leslie Oren and provides practical and understanding advice about online dating. It goes forward in chronological order – starting with how to get the right attitude to date online all the way through how to turn online dating success into a real relationship. Each chapter features true stories and ends with a handy chapter recap.

The Border Lord's Bride by Bertrice Small

When Highland heiress Ellen MacArthur, who has been betrothed to her cousin her whole life, is involved in a murder attempt, she goes to King James for help. The price of the king's help? Ellen has to agree to marry a border lord named Duncan Armstrong, who has no interest in taking a bride he neither loves nor desires. Set in the late 1400's in Scotland, readers will experience an intriguing plot line as well as learn much about history.

The Pleasure Trap by Elizabeth Thornton

Eve Dearing has followed her calling to become a Gothic romance novelist in 19th century England. So consumed with her work, she suddenly finds herself unmarried at twenty-four, far past the age where she would have been able to attract a proper husband. When she meets Ash Denison at a writers' symposium, Eve suddenly feels like she's living one of her novels.
