

Down the Rabbit Hole

Peter Abrahams

YA FIC ABR

It's crazy how one small decision can change your life... 12-year-old Ingrid was waiting for her ride to soccer practice one day when she started to get bored and decided to run to practice instead. She gets lost in a really bad neighborhood, and Katie (well-known in the town for being crazy) calls Ingrid a cab. Ingrid doesn't tell her parents about what happened, but things get sticky when Katie is found murdered and Ingrid's footprints are at the murder scene.

Missing in Tokyo

Graham Marks

YA FIC MAR

After Adam discovers that his older sister, Charlie, was kidnapped in Tokyo, he flies across the world to search for her. After wandering around for days, he spots Alice, the friend that his sister had been traveling with, but Alice runs away from him. Confused, Adam meets the beautiful Aiko, and he enlists her to help him search for his missing sister. This book is full of excitement as Adam and Aiko battle the Japanese Mafia and Tokyo drug scene!

Club Dread

Walter Sorrells

YA FIC SOR

Sixteen-year-old Chass has an identity crisis; her family has forced her to live in 25 different towns, and she hasn't had the time to figure out who she really is. At the latest town, she decides to explore her love of music, and she starts a band. When she witnesses a young pop stars murder in the street one night, Chassy must sneak into a secret society in order to prove her innocence in the murder.

The Case of the Missing Marquess

Nancy Springer

J FIC SPR

Enola Holmes is the fourteen-year-old sister of Sherlock Holmes, and she has the same knack for solving mysteries as her brother. When Enola's mother goes missing one day, Enola sets off to find her. Along the way, she discovers that the young marquess is also missing, and she becomes enmeshed in two mysteries.

Compiled by Beth Blood 2006

Marshall District Library

<http://www.marshalldistrictlibrary.org>